OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR

UNITED STATES INFORMATION AGENCY
WASHINGTON

8-8478

November 29, 1956.

Dear Allan,

Several months ago you were kind enough to arrange for personnel of Huntington Sheldon's office periodically to brief Mr. Streibert and myself on topics of interest to this Agency. I feel that we have benefited greatly by this service which so frequently conveys information available through no other channel.

As you know, Arthur Larson is taking over the position of Director of the U.S. Information Agency, and I shall appreciate it if your Agency will grant him the proper clearances and continue the briefings which have been so profitable.

Sincerely,

Abbott Washburn
Acting Director

The Honorable
Allan W. Dulles,
Director, Central Intelligence Agency,
Washington 25, D. C.
